Privacy Notice and declaration

Declaration

I understand that before I enter into a contract of insurance with an insurer, I have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that I know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms. But it doesn't require disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer
- that's of common knowledge
- that the insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of their business, ought to know
